

LAKE GENEVA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

New Adventures

2010 - 2011 Concert Season

The Lake Geneva Symphony Orchestra ushers in the inaugural season of new Music Director, David Anderson.

We'll celebrate the past, embrace the present, and imagine the future through a variety of different projects. Each concert will feature old favorites as well as works new to the orchestra; we'll share stories of the ensemble and introduce some of the newer faces.

Please join us as we begin an exciting new adventure for the Lake Geneva Symphony Orchestra!

Saturday, November 13th, 2010, 7:30pm

Voyager Capital Management presents:
Rachel Barton Pine and
The Lake Geneva Symphony Orchestra

World-renown Violinist Rachel Barton Pine will be joining The Lake Geneva Symphony for a special one-night-only event you won't want to miss. The Lake Geneva Symphony Orchestra together with Rachel Barton Pine, will perform:

Dana Wilson, Shortcut Home
Elgar, Nimrod from Enigma Variations
Rimsky-Korsakov, Capriccio Espagnol
Bruch, Violin Concerto in G minor

"An exciting, boundary-defying performer — Pine displays a power and confidence that puts her in the top echelon."

— The Washington Post

Please visit our website for concerts in February, March and May, 2011

www.lakegenevaorchestra.org | (262) 248 - 1198