

Orchestra takes crowd to 'Wild, Wild West'

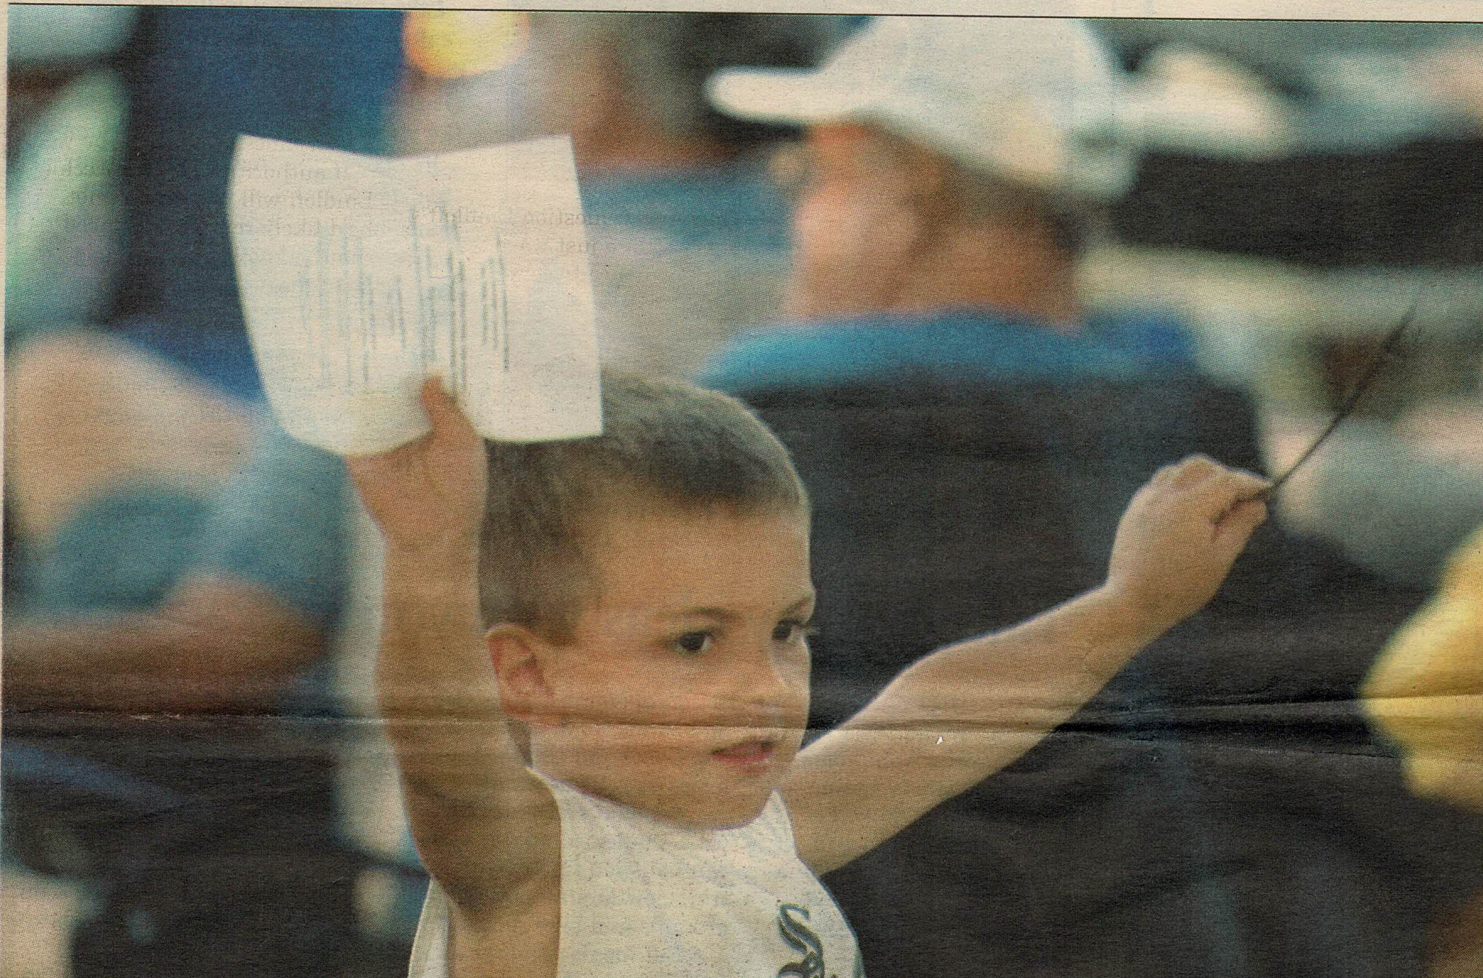

The Lake Geneva Symphony Orchestra performed "The Wild, Wild West" on Aug. 1 at Flat Iron Park as part of the Geneva Lake Area Chamber of Commerce's Concerts in the Park series.

Bands perform at Venetian Festival on Thursday, Aug. 15, and the Lake Geneva Middle School Orchestra plays at 2 p.m. and Mark & Gretch at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 22.

The Concert in the Park finale will feature entertainer Jeff Gordon at 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 29. Gordon has performed songs by such country artists as Conway Twitty, George Jones, George Strait and Garth Brooks.

Gordon also performs hits by Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, Elvis, Buddy Holly, Chubby Checker and Roy Orbison.

The LGSO's next concert will be Saturday, Nov. 16.

Above, David Anderson directs the Lake Geneva Symphony Orchestra's performance of "The Wild, Wild West" on Aug. 1 at Lake Geneva's Flat Iron Park. At left, Derek Minor, who was staying with his grandparents, found a twig on the ground and was walking through the crowd conducting his own orchestra.